

The Home Buyer's Closing Checklist

Closing is the last — and biggest — step of buying your home. This checklist walks you through what to do before closing, what to bring to the table, and how to close with confidence.

Print this checklist and check off each step as you go. It follows the same stages the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau recommends, tuned for how closings actually work here in Central Indiana. Questions on any step? Call Your Realty Link at 317-997-7404.

A couple of weeks out: get your ducks in a row

A smooth closing starts well before closing day. Knock these out early so nothing surprises you at the table.

☐ Confirm your closing date, time, and location with Your Realty Link, your lender, and the title company

In Indiana, closings are usually handled by a title or settlement company. We'll make sure everyone is on the same page.

☐ Lock in your homeowner's insurance and send the policy to your lender

Your lender needs proof of insurance before they'll fund the loan. Shop a couple of quotes — premiums vary.

☐ Schedule your final walkthrough for the 24–48 hours before closing

Your last chance to confirm the home's condition, that any agreed repairs were done, and that nothing changed since your offer.

☐ Keep your finances steady and boring

Until you have the keys, don't open new credit, finance a car, make large deposits, or change jobs — any of it can derail your approval.

☐ Confirm your “cash to close” amount and how you'll deliver it

You'll typically bring a cashier's check or send a wire. Get the exact amount and instructions from the title company.

Three days before: your Closing Disclosure

By law, your lender must give you the Closing Disclosure at least three business days before closing. That window is for you — use it.

☐ Review your Closing Disclosure (CD) the moment it arrives

This is the final accounting of your loan and costs. Read every line.

☐ Compare the CD to your original Loan Estimate

Check that the loan type, interest rate, monthly payment, and cash to close match what you expected. Only certain costs are allowed to change.

☐ Ask your loan officer about anything that changed or that you don't understand

Fees you don't recognize, a different rate, escrow questions — get answers before you sign, not at the table.

☐ Confirm your final cash-to-close number

So your cashier's check or wire is for the exact amount.

Protect your money from wire fraud

Real estate closings are a top target for scammers. Never trust wiring instructions — or last-minute changes to them — that arrive by email or text. Before you move a single dollar, call the title company using a phone number you already know (not one from the email) and confirm the account details out loud. When something feels off, slow down and check with us.

Closing day: what to bring

Show up ready. Here's your grab-list for the table.

☐ Government-issued photo ID for every buyer on the loan

A valid driver's license, state ID, or passport.

☐ Your cashier's check or proof of wire for the cash to close

Made out per the title company's instructions.

☐ A copy of your Closing Disclosure

To compare against the final documents one more time.

☐ Your co-borrower, if you have one

Everyone on the loan needs to sign.

☐ Your checkbook, just in case

For any small last-minute difference.

At the table: before you sign

Take your time. You have every right to read and understand what you're signing, no matter how long it takes.

☐ Confirm the key numbers match across your documents

Loan amount, interest rate, and monthly payment should be identical on the note, the mortgage, and your Closing Disclosure.

☐ Ask how your property taxes and insurance are handled

Are they escrowed into your monthly payment, or do you pay them yourself? Indiana property taxes are billed in two installments each year.

☐ Ask where to send your payment and about any HOA dues

Know who will service your loan and how HOA payments work if your neighborhood has an association.

☐ Collect your keys, garage remotes, and mailbox keys

Make sure you leave the table with everything you need to get into your home.

After closing: settle in

Congratulations — you're a homeowner. A few last things to protect your investment.

☐ Store your closing documents somewhere safe

You'll need them for taxes and future reference. A digital backup is smart.

☐ Set up your utilities

Use our Central Indiana utilities & setup guide to line up electric, gas, water, trash, and internet for your new address.

☐ File for your Indiana homestead deduction

This lowers property taxes on your primary residence — file with your county auditor. Ask us or your title company about the current deadline.

☐ Change the locks and update your address

New locks for peace of mind, plus USPS, your driver's license, banks, and subscriptions.
